
Anti-Bribery Policy

The Law Office Vujacic is committed to conducting its business with honesty and integrity and in compliance with all laws, domestic and foreign, prohibiting improper payments or inducements to any person, including public officials. To ensure compliance with these laws and the related requirements the Law Office has adopted this Anti-Corruption Policy.

General provisions

All forms of bribery and corruption are prohibited. A bribe does not actually have to take place - just promising to give a bribe or agreeing to receive one is prohibited. Law Office Vujacic representative shall not pay or offer to pay a bribe, or provide another thing of value for the purpose of obtaining an improper benefit, to any third party, public or private, with whom Office is doing business.

Law Office Vujacic Representative shall not give or offer to give on behalf of the Company any money, gift or thing of value to a third party if he or she knows or has reason to believe that it will be offered to a Public Official or any other person to obtain or retain business with any person, to direct business to any person, to obtain any other advantage in the conduct of business, or to induce or reward the improper performance by any person of any function or activity.

Compliance with Anti-Corruption Laws

Each Law Office Vujacic Representative shall conduct itself with high ethical standards and comply with all applicable anti-corruption laws. Office Representative shall not directly or indirectly, promise, authorize, offer or pay anything of value (including but not limited to gifts, travel, hospitality, charitable donations or employment) to any government official to improperly influence any act or decision of such official for the purpose of promoting the business interests of Law Office Vujacic or clients in any respect, or to otherwise improperly promote the business interests of Law Office Vujacic in any respect.

Facilitating Payments Prohibited

A facilitating payment is a small payment to secure or expedite a routine government action by a government official. Law Office Vujacic prohibits bribes of any kind, including facilitating payments.

Money Laundering Prohibited

Law Office Vujacic Representative shall not use its relationship with Office to disguise or attempt to disguise the sources of illegally obtained funds.

Political parties contributions Prohibited

Law Office Vujacic Representative shall not make contributions of funds, facilities or services of any kind to political parties or officials or candidates for office to obtain their support for executive, legislative, administrative or other action favorable to the Law Office.
