ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Law Office Vujacic team acts as representatives in proceedings before the various administrative authorities and before the Administrative Court of Montenegro with extensive experience in that field and our Office offers integrated advice which covers all stages of administrative procedures.

Our team has successfully represented numerous clients in a long list of public procurement law matters. We assist clients in their relations with administrative authorities, before and during inspections, and advise on transactions involving public services and the application of the Public Administration Law and many others administrative laws.

Our experience with both civil and administrative litigation, and the relationship between each under different sets of procedural rules, can represent a substantial advantage both in presenting Client's case at a hearing and in negotiating a favorable resolution with Client's agency opponent.

Law Office Vujacic represents also administrative agencies providing them with advice on a wide range of issues.
